Six weeks later she writes: "Have read and sewed immoderately of late, but my headaches do not return."

Mrs. John R. Miller, of Valparaiso, Ind., was attacked three years ago with turn of life in its worst form. It finally went to her head, and all indications were that it would result either in insanity or softening of the brain. Her husband thus writes; "It would be impossible for me to attempt a description be impossible for me to attempt a description of her sufferings during all this time. BIG FINANCIAL PROBLEM

Connected With the Fair-The Expenses of the Big Show.

New York Times.

Now that the gates of the World's Fair have been opened and the exhibition unanimously declared to be the greatest ever held, taking into consideration the number and excellence of the various displays and the architectural merit of the buildings, the directors are confronted with the very serious problem of how to make both ends meet.

ends meet.

How serious a problem this is may be shown by a plain statement of fact. Over $33,350,000 has been expended in the construction of the 200 or more buildings within the limits of Jackson Park. Of this amount the national and state governments have spent over rark. Of this amount the hatman and state governments have spent over $12,000,000.

These receipts amount to about $18,700,000, leaving $14,300,000 of the $33,000,000 received from other sources.

The $14,650,000 which will have to be accounted for under any circumstances includes the following amounts: Six per cent departure bouls due January per cent debenture bonds, due January the city of Chicago, secured by bonds, $5,000,000; on stock subscriptions, $5,503,760, the exact amount being

Not counting the interest on, say, in round numbers $15,000,000, the amount which must romain in the treasury at the end of the fair, after all expenses are paid, is either $15,000,000, or $17,500,000 if the fair is kept open on Sun-

The directory has figured all atong that the operating expenses would be paid by the receipts from the conces-sions which have been granted. In all cases where concessions have been granted the exposition has insisted on receiving from the concessionaires from 10 to 75 per cent of the gross receipts. The department of concessions refuses to give out any figures, but it is estimated that about 250 concessions have been granted. Some of them are very valuable and

Some of them are very valuable and others will not bring much money, but, taking the fair officials at their own estimate, that the receipts from concessions will offset the daily running expenses, there is still the $15,000,000 or $17,500,000 to be provided for.

This can come only from the gate receipts. The daily gate receipts must aggregate either $82,000 or $95,000 in round numbers to cover the amount, which means a daily attendance of either $64,000 or $100,000 people paying either 164,000 or 190,000 people paying either 164,000 or 190,000 people paying fifty cents each.

On the opening day 155,565 people paid to get inside the gates. Since then the paid admissions have fa'len off to 10,000 or 20,000 a day. It will be seen from this that, even with the big attendance of the opening day, the receipts were not large enough to come up to what must be the average receip's for 183 days.

EXTORTIONATE PRICES At the World's Fair-Chicago's Guests will be Protected.

Chicago Tribune.

The status of hotel and lodging accommodations in this city as verified by Tribuns representatives, is just this: The supply exceeds the demand overwhelmingly. The houses that are charging reasonable rates are doing the great bulk of the business, and even they are not filled to their fullest capacity. The extortionists have but few people in their houses and do not seem to be booking any guests in advance. Hun-dreds of private families have rooms for dreas of private lamines have rooms for ront at reasonable prices and the ma-jority of these are still vacant, owing to the fact that the supply so greatly ex-ceeds the demand. Again, thousands of rooms will be added to the already oxcessive supply within another month, and the owners of those will be looking for business.

The whole situation is merely that of supply and demand. There are to-day in Chicago more rooms than there are people to fill them, and in the face of these facts extortion cannot succeed. It is certain that another month will bring the "high-priced" people to a realizing sense of their indiscretion if realizing sense of their indiscretion if they expect to secure any patronage. Their hotels are at present more or less deserted, and ample room is available at a fair cost. If visitors to the World's Columbian Expositron permit themselves to be imposed upon in the matter of outrageous charges for accommodations they will have no one but themselves to blame. There is plenty of room for all and at a reasonable price. One assignment of a hotel company has already grown out of this greed and its failure to realize expectations. failure to realize expectations.

Boarding-housekeepers who attempt extertion will also suffer.

Give Some Important Information About the Present Condition of the People.

At no time in the history of New York City have there been so many deaths from pneumia as now. The official figures show that nearly twice as many deaths from this cause are occurring than for the last five years. This is something terrible.

Dr. John T. Nsgle, registrar of vital statistics, says that this increase is due to the influence of grip. He says that grip may be called epidemic has now, and that in the majority of cases grips as vital contributing cause to pneumonia and all dangerous pulmonary troubles. At this time of the year, when we are changing over from winter to spring, there is always a low order of vitality: a reaction from the strains of the season. The blood does not flow so full nor rapidly; the strength is less. For this reason grip has much better chance than at any other season. This is a time of year when people need to be careful and too much importance cannot be placed upon keeping the blood warm and in circulation. You must bring about a reaction if you wish to avoid the pain and dangers of these troubles in time. There is but one way by which a reaction can be brought about an ethatis by the use of a pure stimulant, preferably whiskey. But the great difficulty is that there are few whiskeys which are pure. The only really sure and reliable whiskey known to the medical profession or the world is Duffy's Pure Mat. It possesses qualities known only to itself. It will bring about a reaction and prevent cold, pneumonia or the grip where many so-called stimulants would fail. It has saved more lives and releved more suffering than anything of a similar nature which was over known before to the world.

Generally on these occasions the crown prince may be seen on a tricycle, which also was a birthday gift from his father.

While the emperor and empress were at the "Marble Palace," at Potsdam, the princes walked or drove over there at four every day to see their parents and younger brothers, and returned home at six o'clock, after having taken nome at six o clock, after finding taken some mitk and rolls. Upon their arrival supper was served; on alternate days warm and cold. Till eight the princes romp about; then they are bathed and go to bed. So one day passes like another. On Sunday morning there is service in the palace or the princes drive over to the garrison clurch.

The stock market opened greatly depressed on the receipt of lower quotations for securities from London, consequent upon the advance in the Bank of England rate of discount from 3 to 35; per cent. The latter stiffened the rates of sterling exchange here, and led to a good deal of talk about gold shipments this week unless the exchange market moves up, but the report has it that gold will go out next week. Should a million or so be forwarded on Saturday it will occasion little surprise. The failure of the Columbian Hank of Chicago and a small bank in Indianapoles, as well of a banking and brokerate concern in Wilmington, Delaware, assisted the bears in their operation. Prices generally opened lower, and the pressure to sell continued for half an hour or so, After that time, however, a sharp rally ensued, and the smaller shorts were badly frightened. During the afternoon the market moved up and down frequently, but it was noticeable that the declines brought in liberal buying orders, which left quotations hixther after each attack. Mr. Fitzgerald Molloy has done excellent work as a Novelist, Dramatis: Journalist, Historian and Litterateur. It is not quite ten years since he published his first story, "Morely Players," which ran through a popular magazino. Though a first novel, it mat with considerable success; but the publication of 'Court Life Bolow States, or London under the First Goorges," Issued more than a year later, at once galled him popularity. It less than three weeks the hirlange edition was out of print, and three unenths afterwards a second cellulon was extansized. This success was followed by a sequel. "Court Life Bolows States, or London Under the Georges," which was road with equal eagernose. This volume have now reached a seventh edition. "The Life and Adventures of Fog Worlington." which was road with equal eagernoses. This collowed, this week being highly popular. Subsequently an Irish novel. "What Hast Thou Life," I have a seventh edition where the supplies of the sequently an Irish novel. "What Hast Thou Life," That Villain Romeo." Again our author turned his attention to social history, and wrote, "Royalty Restored, or London under Charles Int." which the leading journals of the day united in praising for its accuracy of details, charm of style and brilliancy of portmitures of Edmund Kean." two books concerning the Stage succeeded; and subsequently this profile writer produced. "A Modern Magician." a romance dealing with the mestelism now fasiloushie in London drawing rooms, which had a wide circulation not only in Greatfritain but in India, Canada and the United States. More and more militures of Edmund and Son a few years ago, achieved an unwonted success as a sterling sensational tale. "Sweet is Revenge." also writien for the same publishers, was a work of a more ambilious characte, and of a strongly dramatic type. "Sace is for Hand." his third great serial story, is confidently expected to be an oven greater success than its predecessors.

ON WHEELS OF FIRE.

Our new story opens with a glimpse of an English village, and the love-making of a young aristocrat and Stella Selwyn, the local beauty. There are rivals for ber hand, but the stranger wins the day, and marries the young lady after a very brief courtably. While on their honeymogn he receives word that his elder brother half committed suicide, and he has succeeded to the title and encumbered estates. The change in his position produces a change in his feelings towards his bride, and in his thoughts and views for the future. He regrets his marriaga. His young wife, who has placed her future in the hands of her husband, without sufficient knowledge of his prospects and position, is his devoted slave. Just as he is planning how he scan discard his wife an avenger appears on the scene in one of his defented rivals. He is insense in a duel on French soil. The wife's bravery and loyalty frustrate this step, and interest is diverted into new channels by further unexpected developments in the story.
